Governor Parson to Discuss Importance of STEM Education Access & Awareness at LaunchCode

ST. LOUIS – On Tuesday, September 4, 2018, Missouri Governor Mike Parson will hold a press conference at the LaunchCode Mentor Center, 4811 Delmar, at 11:45 a.m. to discuss the importance of making STEM education and career pathways visible to young Missourians.

On August 30, Gov. Parson announced a Special Session to focus on the passage of computer science course access and awareness of career opportunities through STEM education. National nonprofit LaunchCode has helped nearly 1,300 individuals enter the tech workforce by providing free training in high-demand tech skills then matching them with employers in need of talent.

Reporters and photographers are welcome to attend.
Please arrive to the LaunchCode Mentor Center at 11:30 a.m.
